

cieties celebrated 63rd anniversary of adoption of Danish constitution at Riverview park yesterday. Rep. Victor Berger principal speaker.

Three Chicago breweries are violating anti-smoke ordinance. They are the Ruehl, the Standard and the Stenson.

L. F. Minahard, 2119 Indiana ave., left gas stove burning when he went to bed, and died of it.

Police investigating death of Mrs. Mary Burnes, 1153 S. Mozart st. Illegal operation.

Moy Tong Mow, oldest Chinese Mason in the middle west, who died of being mistaken for another Chinaman during Tong war, buried with high honors at Rosehill.

Chicago Methodist ministers to hold their preachers' meeting on the Desplaines camp ground today.

Mrs. Lize Mohr, 1859 Maud ave., badly burned about hands and face putting out fire in clothes closet of home.

Nels Petersen, 7115 Drexel blvd., found drowned in Jackson park lagoon. Police investigating.

Sisters of Rob. Catherwood, head of Civil Service Reform Association, have filed charges against him as trustee of his father's estate.

Jane Murdock Memorial building of Presbyterian hospital, to house maternity, children's and contagious cases, dedicated and opened. Funds left by late Thos. Murdock.

United Societies of Chicago to publish monthly paper in which they will attempt to destroy arguments of the "drys."

Mrs. Mary C. Hopkins, 6131 Kimbark ave., hurt when auto driven by brother, Wm. B. Austin, 25 Scott st., new president of Hamilton club, crashed into street car at Dearborn and Harrison sts.

Fire caused $5,000 damage to warehouse of Wm. Rotsted Co., hay and grain dealers, 1829-35 N. Ashland ave.

Hugh E. Keough (Hek), for six years on staff of Tribune, and one of the best known sporting writers in country, died yesterday.

Grand Chief W. S. Stone took part in memorial services at

"BOSS" FLINN.

Ever Since Flinn Came to Chicago Taft's Managers Have Been So Nervous They Could Not Take a Drink Without Spilling Some.